Dialogue 1 – Getting there

Rocky has just landed at Melbourne airport. As he is waiting in line at Immigration, Angel, another new arrival, tells him he's in the wrong line. When Rocky finally gets to the Immigration Desk, the officer tells him he must fill out his Incoming Passenger card.

Airport – Immigration checkpoint

Announcement: All travellers holding Australian passports please move to the queue on the left.

Angel: Hi.

Rocky: Hi!

Angel: I think you might be in the wrong line. Your passport doesn't look Australian.

Rocky: Oh. But there are a lot of Asian people in this line. Look.

Angel: Well, I guess there must be a lot of Asian Australians.

Rocky: Really! I wondered why this line was moving so fast. Thanks. I'm a bit jetlagged. I'm not paying attention.

Officer: Next in line please.

Angel: That's me. Might see you out there. Maybe you should move to the back of this line.

Rocky: Thanks.

Officer: And what is the purpose of your visit?

Angel: Study.

Officer: Could I see your letter of acceptance please?

Angel: Sure.

Officer: Next, please.

Rocky: Good morning.

Officer: Hello. Your passport please.

What is the purpose of your visit?

Rocky: I'm a tourist.

Officer: Could I have your Incoming Passenger card please?

Rocky: Um...

Officer: The yellow card. The one you filled out on the plane.

Rocky: Oh, do you mean this one?

Officer: Yes, but you have to fill it out.

Rocky: Oh.

Officer: If you could fill it out over there, sir.

Rocky: And then do I wait in line again?

Officer: Look we'll try to send you to the top of the line again, but it might not be possible. Next!
